

O Captain ~ You Are My Captain!

Written by Giselle Celeste Smith

You are the Anchor of My Soul, by Your Instructions I am sown, letting go of my own will, in place of your own,
Which causes our enemy to always moan and to groan. Your precious Holy Spirit is the wind in my sails.
Your Living Word, is the Rudder guiding me through all my trails. Your Word in me is always abiding and it always prevails.

Holy Father, your love is my Mainstay and you are my solid Mast, This I know that your Love for me will forever last.
Help me to forget, those things that are behind, by Your Precious Holy Spirit's Love Divine.

Teach me to live in the full presence of your Living Word,
With your full assurance, I know that in Heaven all my prayers are always heard.

Give me Your Hope, Joy, Success and Gladness, Always replacing discouragement, disappointment, failure, and sadness.

Empower My Soul to soar with Your Plan for My Life, teaching me to replace Faith in place of all fright.

Help me to maintain my Most Holy Faith, by Daily continually seeking Your Face.

Enable me to stand in the face of adversity then I shall not be weary in well doing by your Kindness and Your Mercy.

Let the Surety of Your Word be for me the Security of Your Love, along with the help of your guiding light from above.

Launch me out into the deep waters help me to stay awake,
watch and pray and not ever to quake.

Guiding me ever upward with Your Confidence, I choose to only look forward into my Captain's eyes.

Master Carpenter I choose not to be in dread, but rather Plead
Your Blood instead.

I shall continue to stand, holding firm onto Your Hand,

Always fighting my good fight, towards Your Heavenly Plan.

One Day in the Presence of My Captain's Quarters

Out weighs, a thousand days in uncharted waters.

Holy Spirit equip me with Your Success,

Your Full Armor do I possess.

Naked I did come into this world,

But now I am fully clothed in the Splendor of Your Word.

I shall Forever Behold the Beauty of Your Holiness.

By Christ Bloodline, I belong to you and you are mine, you are my holy rest divine.

The Banner of Your Resurrection Love helps keep me in line,
Your leadership to me is my Glory sublime.

O Ancient of Days, You truly are the Captain of My Ship

Your Word and Your Spirit, prevents dangerous collisions with any other Ship.

Steady is my journey, Hopeful is my final destination,

On earth as it is in Heaven, with Triumphant Jubilation!

Solid is your Love, planted in me by Your Precious Holy Spirit from above.

Sturdy is my Destination, for you are my Revelation Dove.

My vessel though it may sway from time to time,

It may seem to falter with the cares of the waves of this world intertwined.

Yet steady, onward and upward it will go,

For It is by your Rudder, that causes our enemies plans to abort..

Yes, you are the Anchor of my soul, O Captain My Captain.

My Master Builder shall not desert me, but He will remain
aboard and keep me afloat,

Steady on, steady on, Sturdy she will float..

This Vessel shall continue on the Captain's journey don't you know.

With purpose and direction in the Captain's hand,
Guided by the compass of Christ's Resurrection plan.

This sailing vessel is built by - the Master Carpenter Himself.
He alone knows every part of its stealth. He alone knows where my next port of call shall be,

Forever above and beyond all that I could ever hope to see and still remain free.

For He alone is My Heavenly Door. I give His Word entrance to this Divine Ship that He adores.

I shall never be lost nor falter or sink. For I know above all else just what the Master Carpenter shall think ---

He shall say, that I shall always sail in safe waters,

If I will stand a faithful watch over my lips, and will not allow
my Faith to falter,

Yes, I will keep a watch over my lips, and I'll reach a safe harbor, what are the risks - For trusting in my Heavenly Father's lips?

O Captain, You are My Captain...You are My Faithful Loving Heavenly Father .

Giselle Celeste Smith

Son Harvest Graphics

San Marcos, Texas USA

SonHarvestGraphics@centurytel.net